

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

LATINO HERITAGE MONTH 2014

Latino Heritage Month Kick Off

Sept 15 – 5-7pm – Cro 1941

"Not Latin@ Enough: Narratives of Latin@s Negotiating Identity . Dinner provided RSVP to jnival@conncoll.edu by Sept 12.

Hostile Terrain: Taphonomy, Necroviolence, and the Politics of Migrant Death in the Sonoran Desert

Oct 2 – 4:30-6:30pm—Olin 014

Lecture by Assistant Professor Jason DeLeon of Anthropology from the University of Michigan followed by a group discussion.

Meet and Greet with Author and Conn Alum Jennifer DeLeon

Oct 6 – 4:30pm

Unity House Pepsico Room

Please join us as author and Connecticut College alum Jennifer DeLeon '01, discusses her book "Wise Latina", followed by a meet and greet.

Latino In America

Oct 8 – 4-5:30pm

Unity House Pepsico Room

Exploring how Latinos are reshaping communities and culture. Documentary showing followed by a discussion.

Human Crisis at the Border: Local and Global Perspective

Oct 15 – 4:30-6:30pm – Cro 1941

A critical and comprehensive forum on immigration and deportation.

Tapas y Tertulias Series**

Visiting Prof. José Carlos Jaenes from Universidad Pablo de Olavide in Seville

España y la Unión Europea

Sept 18 – 4:30pm

Cro's Nest

El arte de Argentina y Cuba

Oct 9 – 4:30pm

Cro's Nest

Hosted by Hispanic Studies Dept**

For more information please contact the Hispanic Studies Department

Sponsored by Anthropology Department, CCSRE, CISLA, Hispanic Studies Department, History Department, Institute for Field Research, La Unidad, MEChA, The Office of Religious and Spiritual Life, OVCS, and Unity House.